SHARE CAPITAL AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

- 3 (i) Subject to the provisions contained in Articles 4 & 5 below the Board may issue any shares to such person as it thinks fit, in accordance with the provisions contained in section 51 of the Companies Act No 07 of 2007.
- (ii) Where such shares confer rights other than those specified in sub section (2) of section 49 of the said Act or impose any obligation on the holder, the Board shall approve the terms of issue, which set out the rights and obligations attached to those shares as required by sub section (2) of section 51 of the said Act.

- 4 Before issuing any shares the Board shall decide the consideration for which such shares will be issued and resolve that in its opinion that consideration is fair and reasonable to the Company and to all existing shareholders.
 - (i) The Company shall when issuing shares which rank equally with or above the existing shares in relation to voting or distribution rights, unless determined otherwise by a Special Resolution, offer such shares to the holders of the existing shares, in a manner which would if the offer is accepted maintain the relative voting and distribution rights of those shareholders.
 - (ii) An offer made in terms of such section (i) above shall remain open for acceptance for a reasonable period of time.
 - (iii) The Board shall have power to allot any shares not subscribed in an offer set out in sub section (i) above to any existing shareholder or to a third party.
- 6 Where at any time the shares of the Company are divided into different classes the rights attached to any class may whether or not the Company is being wound up be varied only with the sanction of such shareholders obtained by way of a Special Resolution passed by such shareholders.
7. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking in pari passu therewith.
8. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest on any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by these rules or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.
9. The Company shall not give, whether directly or indirectly, and whether by means of a loan, guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise, any financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase or subscription made or to be made by any person of any shares in the Company or, whether the Company is a subsidiary Company, in its holding Company nor shall the Company make a loan for any purpose whatsoever on the security of its shares of those of its holding Company but nothing in this regulation shall prohibit transactions authorised by the statutes.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

10. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled without payment to receive within fourteen days after allotment or lodgment of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate for all his shares or several certificates each for one or more of his shares. Every certificate shall be under the seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon.
11. Where a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the Company of investigating evidence as the directors think fit.

LIEN

12. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fullypaid share) for all money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares (other than fully-paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the Company; but the Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this rule. The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.
13. The company may sell, in such manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien. but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days from the date of a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reasons of his death, bankruptcy or insolvency.
14. To give effect to any such sale the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

15. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable which existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares on the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

16. The Board may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each member shall be subject to receiving at least fourteen days notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Board may determine.
17. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.
18. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
19. Where a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding ten per centum per annum as the Board may determine, but the Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interests wholly or in part.
20. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these rules be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these rules as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

22. The Board may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the monies so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding (unless the Company in general meeting shall otherwise direct) ten centum per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying such sum in advance.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

23. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.
24. The Board may at their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefore decline to register any transfer of shares (not being fully paid shares) to a person whom they shall not approve and they may also decline to register of shares (not being fully paid shares) on which the company has lien. If the Board refuses to register a transfer they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company send to the transferee notice of refusal.
25. Subject to such restrictions of these rules as may be applicable, any member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the Board may approve.
26. The Board may, in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason thereto, decline to register any transfer of shares, not being fully paid shares.
27. The Board may also decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:
 - (i) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
 - (ii) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of share.

28. Where the Board refuse to register a transfer they shall, five days from the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.
29. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such time and for such period as the Board may from time to time determine, provided always that such registrations shall not be suspended for more than thirty days in any year
30. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these presents if and so long as the company's shares are quoted in any Licensed Stock Exchange the Board may register without incurring any liability therefore any transfer of shares in accordance with the requirements of the rules and regulations in force for the time being and from time to time of such Licensed Stock Exchange and any agency whose primary object is to act as Central Depository for such Exchange.
31. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles the shares listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange shall be freely transferable and the registration of the transfer of such listed shares shall not be subject to any restriction, save and except to the extent required for compliance with statutory requirements"
- (b) The Company shall not register more than Three persons as joint holders (including the principal holder) of any shares (except in the case of executors, administrators or heirs of a deceased shareholder)".

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

32. In case of the death of a member the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal representative of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which has been jointly held by him with other persons.
33. There shall be no restriction by way of limitation of number in regard to the persons to be registered as joint holders of a share where such persons are executors, administrators or heirs of a deceased shareholder.

34. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Board shall in either case have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that member before his death, bankruptcy, or insolvency, as the case may be.
35. When the person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. Whether he elects to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these rules relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of the member has not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by the member.
36. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

Provided always that the Board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and where the notice is not complied with, within ninety days the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other money payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

37. Whether a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on a day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
38. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

39. Where the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.
40. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Board think fit.
41. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.
42. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share in any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
43. The provisions of these rules as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

44. The Company may by Special Resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.
45. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same rules as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances permit; and the Board may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

46. The holder of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage, (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
47. Such of the rules of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

48. The Board may resolve to increase the stated capital from time to time by the creation and issue of new shares in accordance with the provisions contained in section 51 of the Companies Act No 7 of 2007 and the provisions contained herein.
49. Subject to the provisions, contained in the said Act and in these Articles, the Board may issue any shares with any preferential rights or privileges with respect to voting distributions or return of capital or subject to any special terms or conditions with respect to voting, distributions or return of capital, with or without any special designation from time to time.
50. The Company may by Special Resolution and subject to the provisions of the said Act consolidate or sub divide all or any of its shares issued at that time in such manner as it may seem fit, or cancel any shares, which at the date of passing the said Resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
51. The Company may by Special Resolution reduce its stated capital in such manner as authorized by the statutes.

GENERAL MEETING

52. The Company shall in each year hold a general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next.

53. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
54. The Board may, whenever they think fit convene an extraordinary general meeting and extraordinary general meetings, shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default, may be convened by such requisitionists as provided by section 134 of the Act. Where at any time there are not within Sri Lanka sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any Director or any two Members of the Company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the Directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

55. An annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by fifteen working days notice in writing at the least, and a meeting of the Company other than an annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by ten working days notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting to such persons as are under the rules of the Company, entitled to receive such notices from the Company. Provided that a meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this rule, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed.
- (a) In the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than ninety-five per centum in nominal value of the shares giving that right.
56. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETING

57. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the Directors and Auditors, the election of Directors in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the Auditors
58. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. So long as a number of the members of the Company remain less than two, one shall form a quorum. In the event number of members are three or exceeds three, three members present in person or by proxy or by attorney shall form a quorum for a general meeting one of whom shall always be the proxy or representative of the Major Shareholder.
59. Whether within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and whether at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.
60. The Chairman, if any, of the Board of Directors shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the Company, or where he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act the directors present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.
61. Where at any meeting no Director is willing to act as Chairman or where no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present shall choose one of their members to be Chairman of the meeting.
62. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
63. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded.

- (a) by the chairman; or
- (b) by at least three members present in person or proxy; or
- (c) by any member or members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (d) by a member or members holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid-up on all the shares conferring that right.

Unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minute of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may also be withdrawn

- 64. Except as provided in rule 65, where a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 65. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

- 66. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote, and on a poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder
- 67. In the case of joint holders the votes of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.
- 68. A member of unsound mind or mentally deficient or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in cases relating to persons of unsound mind or mentally deficient persons may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his manager or curator or other person in the nature of a manager or curator appointee by court, and any such manager or curator or other person may, on a poll, vote by proxy.

69. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless the calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.
70. No objections shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
71. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
72. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or where the appointer is a corporation, either under seal, or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy need not be a member of the Company.
73. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company or at such other place within Sri Lanka as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in the default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
74. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances permit.

CORPORATIONS ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES AT MEETINGS

78. Any corporation which is a member of the Company may by resolution of its Directors or other governing body authorize such person as it thinks fit to act as the representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of members of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of such corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company.

Amended as per the Special Resolution
passed on 25th
October 2018

79. The Board of Directors of the Company shall consist of not less than two and not more than nine in number

80. The remuneration of the Directors shall from time to time be determined by the Company in general meeting. Such remuneration shall be deemed to accrue from day to day. The Directors may also be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from Meetings of the Directors or any committee of the Directors or general meetings of the Company or in connection with the business of the Company

81. The share holding qualification for Directors may be fixed by the Company in general meeting and unless until so fixed no qualification shall be required.

82. A Director of the Company may be or become a director or other Officer of, or otherwise interested, in any Company. promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as share holder or otherwise, and no such Director shall be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as a Director or Officer of, or from his interest in, such other Company unless the Company otherwise directs.

83. (i) Any Director who is abroad or about to go abroad may at any time by notice in writing left at the Office, appoint any person to be an Alternate Director of the Company to act in his place during his absence abroad and the following provisions of this Article shall apply to any persons so appointed.

(ii) A person appointed to be an Alternate Director shall not in respect of such appointment be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company but the Directors may repay the Alternate Director such reasonable expenses as he may incur in attending and returning from Meetings of the Directors which he is entitled to attend or which he may otherwise properly incur in or about the business of the Company or may pay such allowances as they may think proper in respect of these expenses.

(iii) An Alternate Director shall (on his giving' an address for such notices to be served upon him) be entitled to receive notices of all meetings of the Directors and to attend and vote as Director at any such meeting at which the Director appointing him is not personally present and generally at such meeting (except where otherwise specifically provided in these presents) to perform all the functions of his appointer as a Director in the absence of such appointer.

(iv). An Alternate Director may be appointed for a specific period or until the happening of a specific event but he shall ipso facto cease to be an Alternate Director in any of the following events that is to say:

- (a) upon the arrival or return to the island of his appointer;
- (b) if his appointer ceases for any reason to be a Director; provided that if any Director retires by rotation but is re-elected at the meeting at which such retirement took effect, any appointment made by him pursuant to this Article which was in force immediately prior to his retirement shall continue to operate after his re-election as if he had not so retired;
- (c) if the Alternate Director shall have a receiving order made against him or compound with his creditors or is adjudicated an insolvent;
- (d) if the Alternate Director be a lunatic or become of unsound mind;
- (e) if the appointment of the Alternate Director is revoked by notice in writing left at the office by his appointer or by a notice purporting to have been sent by his appointer and received at the office.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS
